Life History of the child and the reason for sponsorship:

Since the occupation of Tibet, thousands of Tibetan fled Tibet and embarked on an arduous and perilous journey into exile. Subsequently, they took refuge in India, Nepal, and Bhutan. Inherently, the life of refugees is that of struggle, plagued by impoverishment and an uncertain future. Nevertheless, under the guidance and aegis of His Holiness the 14th Dalai Lama, it was decided that "Education" holds the key to preserving and sustaining the Tibetan struggle for a longer time. Therefore, separate schools for Tibetan children were established under the administration of the Department of Education, CTA. The DoE is the apex body that has the mandate to give guidance and oversee the education of the entire Tibetan community in exile. On 16th May 1999, DoE started a new organization (Sambhota Tibetan Schools Society) that would manage the schools which were erstwhile managed directly by the DoE. Sambhota primarily provides education in far-flung areas, providing wholesome education to those less privileged.

Tenzin Karchoe hails from a far-flung region named Bhandara, Norgyeling, Maharastra. It is an English medium school and has classes from I to V. Moreover, the primary livelihood of the family over there is either farmers, army or winter sweater sellers. His father is the sole breadwinner as he is work in a rice mill on a meagre income for a long working hour while his mother is a housewife. The amount generated by his father just suffices to meet their basic necessities, let alone bearing Karchoe's school fee. They want their son to study well and achieve his dream unlike themselves.

Karchoe is an extroverted and courteous little boy who is fond of playing football. Physically, he is a welldeveloped child and likes to spend time playing with his friends. Additionally, his favourite food is ladies finger while blue is his favourite colour. He wishes to become a footballer and his favourite subject is Mathematics. His humble parent has a huge expectation from him and wishes to see him succeed unlike themselves. They want their son to become a contributing member of not only our exile Tibetan community but the world at large.

We assure you that, we will keep you posted and updated about the child twice a year, covering his progress in academic and co-curricular activities. We the entire staff members and the children would like to thank you for your unwavering support till now, we have made good progress till now, but we are also aware that there are still more grounds to cover, so to achieve that we continually require your both physical and moral support.
