Life History of the child and the reason for sponsorship:

Since the occupation of Tibet, thousands of Tibetan fled Tibet and embarked on an arduous and perilous journey into exile. Subsequently, they took refuge in India, Nepal, and Bhutan. Inherently, the life of refugees is that of struggle, plagued by impoverishment and an uncertain future. Nevertheless, under the guidance and aegis of His Holiness the 14th Dalai Lama, it was decided that "Education" holds the key to preserve and sustain the Tibetan struggle for a longer time. Therefore, separate schools for Tibetan children were established under the administration of the Department of Education, CTA. The DoE is the apex body that has the mandate to give guidance and oversee the education of the entire Tibetan community in exile. On 16th May 1999, DoE started a new organization (Sambhota Tibetan Schools Society) that would manage the schools which were erstwhile managed directly by the DoE. Sambhota primarily provides education in far-flung areas, providing wholesome education to those less privileged.

Tenzin Nyima studies at our sister school STS Chauntra, Dharamsala, Himachal Pradesh. It has classes from pre-primary to class V. Both his parent is illiterate by nature, hence they don't have much choice when it's comes to job prospects and oppurtunities. His father is a warden in school while his mother is a housewife by nature. His father is a hostel warden in a school, he oversee boys hostel students. The income he generates barely covers their daily necessities, let alone paying the school fee of Nyima. Hence, he want Nyima to study well and has a high hope from him to change the grim lifestyle of their family. They want their children to study well and become self-reliant, unlike themselves.

Nyima is an adorable and an introverted child by nature. He likes to spend his sparetime with his friend playing and has many friends at his school. His hobbies includes playing with softball and football. He is fond of attending school daily and learning new things. Additionally, he likes participating in school cocurricular activities and is quite good in his studies. His favorite color is yellow while momo (Tibetan meat dumpling) is his favourite food. His favourite subject to learn is Mathematics. Additionally, he likes football and wishes to become a footballer. Also, he is fond of spending time with his friends and mother.
